CRURCHES OF CHRIST,
SCIENTIST

Paul's words to the Romans, "We also joy in God through our Lord leave Christ, by whom we have now received the atomement," are the Golden Text in the Leason-Sermon on "Doctrine of Atonsment" on Sunday in all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston Mass.

Möther Church. The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Anne of the Bible selections in the Lesson-Sermon includes Paul's words to Timothy: "It exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; ... For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jeau."

A correlative passage from the Christian Science texthook, "Selence and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, states: "Wearing in part a human form (that is, as it seemed to mortal view), being conceived by a human mother, Jeaus was the mediator between Spirit and the flesh, between Truth and error. Explaining and demonstrating the way of divine Science, he became the way of salvation to all who accepted his word."

CWA Workers Must Turn In Their Vouchers

SAN FRANCISCO.—A request for publicity has come from Captain Edward Macauley, Federal Civil Works Administrator in San Francisco, and the state auditor, W. M. Sanborn, which this paper is glad to comply with. Many vouchers for CWA work have not been turned in. Will every person in this county having such vouchtable to the state administration to the local director? This will enable the state administration to close its books and will thereby release money for local circulation, a most important factor in present economic conditions. Put these vouchers in the hands of the local directors by April 23, and do not send them to the San Francisco head office.

It must be understood this reserved.
